Sweetest Day To 'Make Someone Happy'

If you're a true believer, you will utilize this week, which is "Sweetest Week" in Albany, to visit shut-ins, call on your aged friends, repay past favors with a sentimental gift or card or to give a gift to your own sweetest person.

Maudlin, you may say, but there is a need for more sweetness in the world today and what better way to do your bit than to patronize your friendly Albany merchants to purchase gifts in observance of the occasion?

Sponsored by Albany Chamber of Commerce and Albany Fire Department, the week will be high lighted by the selection of "Little Miss Flame," an Albany girl between the ages of five and eight who will serve as Fire Department mascot until a new "Miss Flame" is selected next October.

Thirteen candidates have registered for the contest. To vote for your favorite, purchase something at a business place listed on page 2 today, and write the number of your candidate on the back of the cash register receipt or on a nomination blank provided for that purpose.

Votes may be cast for a purchase of 10 cents or $10. Each purchase counts as one vote.

Ballot boxes will be picked up Friday evening, Oct. 20. The winner will be announced at the meeting of Albany City Council on Monday, Oct. 23.

Chamber of Commerce chairman of the promotion is Joe Dagna. H. F. Call is co-chairman. Others on the committee are Neil Corey and Harold Pavey.

Little Miss Flame will also be Albany's Sweetest Person in 1967, but it is planned to have the essay contest for Sweetest Person again in 1968. It was a popular feature of the 1966 promotion, discontinued this year.

Super Stop Has 1st Birthday

On pages 4 and 5 today, you will find Super Stop's first anniversary sale advertised.

All sorts of gifts, including watches, orchids, balloons for the kids and ice cream for everyone, will be given away.

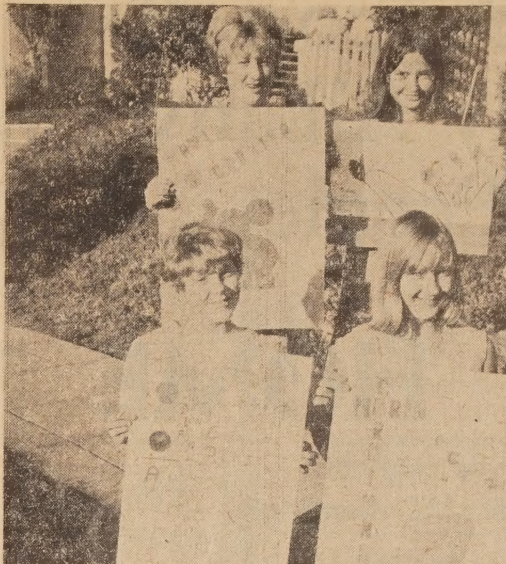

Owners Clifford and Henry Axt have asked the Times to express their appreciation to their customers for the patronage during the year.

Sweden Topic For High 12

Lars Shonander, counsel general of Sweden with headquarters in San Francisco, will discuss "Sweden Today" at the regular noon meeting of Albany High 12 club at Kirby's in El Cerrito Plaza Friday, Oct. 20.

Program chairman is Herbert Rounds. Hospitality Chairman George Hein has invited all Master Masons to join the group at the Friday luncheon.

Marin Carnival Oct. 21

Army Vets Host Next Meeting of Legion Post

Army Veteran members of Albany post 292, American Legion, are going to take over affairs of the post Friday, Oct. 20, at the Albany Veterans' Memorial Building starting at 6:30 p.m.

The evening has been set aside for the Army to entertain all other branches of the armed forces who are affiliated with the post. The affair will be staged, according to Frank McLaughlin, past commander and general chairman. Events will open with an "attitude adjustment hour" in the Rumpus Room with the post's color guard under the direction of LeRoy W. Holland.

At 7:30, those assembled will be conducted to the banquet room where a dinner as only Lee Jackson, the Chef at Spengers, can bake, cook or fry.

Items on the agenda are Veterans' Day parade in Berkeley Nov. 11 and the post's "Frank Knapp Rehabilitation Day" program, also on Veterans' Day, but Commander Alvin (Hap) Willis

Eagles Auxiliary Bazaar Saturday

Eagles Bayview auxiliary 2323 will hold its annual bazaar Saturday, Oct. 21, in the Eagles hall, 3222 Carlson Blvd., El Cerrito from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The next auxiliary meeting will be at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 24, at the hall. There will be a meeting of officers at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 7.

Drawings for prizes will be held at 7 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 29. First prize will be a set of stainless steel cookware valued at $169.50. Second prize is a buffet type electric skillet, $48.50, and third, a stainless steel roaster pan, $42.

SQUARE DANCING

The second class of the newly formed square dance club of the Albany YMCA will be held tomorrow night, Oct. 19, at 8 p.m. This group is for adult couples and is still open for registrations. The group will meet regularly each Thursday night and run for 30 weeks. It is under the leadership of Charley Koutz, who has had many years of experience with square dance groups. For further information call the Albany YMCA, 525-4833.

Birds 'n' Bees To Be Incorporated Into Health Units in City Schools

Although there will be no course titled "sex education" in Albany schools, the Board of Education last Tuesday night approved a reorganization of instruction in health education.

Because at least 80 per cent of youngsters get sex information from sources other than their parents, it is now believed that most parents will welcome a scientifically and sociologically based, well-organized and timely sex education program in school.

The school system is attempting to explain the program to parents and involve parents in the planning so that sex education in its finest sense can be taught.

That students themselves value this type of education was proven at Albany High school last year.

Films on venereal disease and alcohol were shown to boys and girls separately in grades eight through 12. The young people were asked to evaluate what they saw. Of 379 answers, 338 felt it was worthwhile and that more time and more material on the subjects were desirable. Forty-one did not like the idea. Of the same group, 318 thought boys and girls should see it together, 56 felt groups should be separated and eight did not answer.

Running concurrently with the program for students to begin Oct. 23 for 10th graders and continue six weeks, will be meetings for parents of those students on five Thursdays to keep them informed specifically concerning the content of the Health Education program as part of Biology.

Six Winners In PP&K

Jim Woulfe Ford's Punt, Pass and Kick program for boys eight to 13 years was held Saturday at Colgar-Feeny Field.

Six winners will compete in the PP&K Zone competition at Bushrod Field, Oakland, Oct. 21.

Winners were Tom McDonald, Robin Gossman, Danny Patterson, Mario Lavagino, Brad Drennan, and Lenny Patterson.

A number of Little League Pops, Recreation boys, Norman Jacobson, Richard Schaefer and Skip Miller assisted Elmer F. Coble of Jim Woulfe Ford in organizing and running off the event.

Sue Thomas Pledges Alpha Theta Phi

Sue Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merritt M. Thomas, 909 Neilson Street, has pledged Alpha Theta Phi, a social sorority at the University of Redlands.

A 1966 graduate of Albany High, Miss Thomas was valedictorian of her graduating class. Girls' League president, and a CSF life member in high school. She and her pledge sisters were presented to the student body by their local sorority in a formal ceremony Oct. 9.

MAYOR INSTALLED

Among members of the Board of Directors of United Cerebral Palsy association of Alameda County to be installed tomorrow night at the Bow and Bell, Oakland, is Albany Mayor Richard O. Clark. Alan Bingham will be installed for his third term as president.

On Nov. 2, Cornell PTA will play host to all elementary school PTAs in the school auditorium to present a panel on the program planned for those in grade school, including kindergarten. Parents will be shown two films their children will see and will be told what is planned for their youngsters. Comments will be welcomed.

Panelists will include School Superintendent Kenneth M. Forry, Director of Education William Woolworth and School Nurses Frances Tilbury and Freda Hanelt.

It will be an evening meeting to allow working parents to attend.

Other Matters

Also approved by the Board last Tuesday was a recommendation by the Business Education department to offer a course, Notehand, as additional assistance to college-bound students. Thirty seniors are now enrolled in the non-grade, non-credit course.

The Board approved a plan for expanded elementary school music designed to encourage children in third grade to become involved in instruction, particularly in violin. The proposal recommends the use of high school violinists as instructors directing children in groups of 10. Albany schools have been successful in using top science students in instructional capacities.

It was noted that a portable has been installed at Cornell school for Educationally Handicapped children. Teachers will be Mrs. Elizabeth Wachenheim and Mrs. Jane Davis.

The board approved an agreement with Albany Methodist church for rental of facilities as additional classroom space for Adult Education.

Superintendent Forry was authorized to apply for federal aid under the Elementary Secondary Education Act, Title II, and to expend such funds in accord with federal and state regulations. In this program, the district would qualify for $3,700 to be spent in connection with the library, particularly for new books.

Permission was granted Forry to appear before the State Board of Public Health in Santa Ana Oct. 20 where he will testify on rules and regulations necessary to implement a program of measles immunization as enacted in the 1967 session of the legislature. Forry was active in initiating the legislation.

A draft proposal was directed by the Board to amend the administrative code to permit employees to have leaves in connection with religious holidays as permitted by the Education Code.

The Board will hold an adjourned meeting Oct. 24 to transact further business.

Monday, Oct. 23

New Supervisor To Speak At Chamber Luncheon

New Alameda County Supervisor Joseph P. Bort will speak on "Chambers of Commerce and Local Government" at a public luncheon meeting sponsored by Albany Chamber of Commerce at noon Monday, Oct. 23, at Serb's.

Luncheon reservations ($2.25) may be made by calling the Chamber, 525-1771, by Friday.

Bort, who was appointed supervisor representing 4th District on Sept. 14 by Governor Ronald Reagan to replace the late Kent D. Purcell, is a native of Avalon, Catalina Island.

He has lived in the East Bay since 1935, receiving a degree in engineering and law from the University of California. He has a law practice in Oakland. A Navy lieutenant in World War II, Bort was chairman of the successful school bond campaign in Berkeley in 1961, after the measure had been defeated four times. In 1963, he challenged three incumbent Berkeley City Councilmen, receiving the highest number of votes. He was again top vote getter in the Council election of 1967.

He and his wife, Jacklyn, live at 615 San Luis Road, Berkeley. They are the parents of a son in the U.S. Marine corps, a son and daughter in college.

THERE IS neither report nor agenda for the City Council in this issue because most city officials are in San Francisco attending the annual meeting of League of California Cities.

WE STAND corrected. Received a card from Mrs. Louis Dowton of 1507 Visalia, Albany, who says their zip code is 94707. We erroneously believed that all of Albany had a zip of 94706.

TWENTY-FIVE states and 19 countries were represented in food served at an international pot luck dinner at Vista school last Tuesday evening. Mrs. Don Turner, dinner chairman, said she had never enjoyed more exotic food in such friendly surroundings.

ANOTHER REMINDER about Letters to the Editor. We welcome them and will publish them whether or not we agree with the contents, believing a public forum for all views is a good thing in a community. We publish anonymous letters if requested as long as we know the letter is legitimate and the original is signed.

RECEIVED an item in the mail the other day which began: "The next meeting will be Oct. 27, 936..." (?)

ON A PROOF last week, our man in the back shop, Wayne DeTar, had set "Helagraph Avenue." The more you think about it, the more apt it becomes. Should have left it alone.

IF THEY all laugh when you sit down to play, better think about attending Arvid Burman's adult education piano classes Monday nights at Albany High room 20, 7 to 10 p.m. Arvid uses a course for older beginners produced by the National Piano Foundation. She'll have you playing recognizable tunes almost immediately.

He had just discovered that his son had withdrawn $12,000 from the bank, leaving only $1,300. Less than 24 hours later, worried friends called for the inductor squad. They found Gus had died—apparently of a heart attack—some time earlier, proving, perhaps, people do die of broken hearts.

VISTA PTA membership drive this year has a theme of "Sail Into Vista PTA," with Mr. and Mrs. Don Markert as co-chairmen. Mrs. Markert is shown above with Lia Turner and Terry Peavler. The board was made by Kensington Firemen, one of whom is Markert. Each sailboat represents a class and is placed on the board to indicate the percentage of parents from that class who have joined the PTA. The winning class receives a cash prize which is used to purchase something for the classroom.

TO CONFERENCE
Navy WAVE Reserve Lieutenant Commander Clarice L. Allison, daughter of Mrs. James C. Lieutenant Commander Allison works as a secretary for General Motors Corporation.

Did you ever wonder what a serviceman thinks about as he heads out through the Golden Gate bound for Vietnam?

SP/4 Jack Healy, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Healy of Albany, wrote his parents recently describing some of his emotions as he left San Francisco to serve as a volunteer with the 212th Combat Aviation "Wings of Freedom" Battalion near Da Nang.

Loaded down with battle gear and waiting on a bleak dock for the "zero hour" of sailing, Jack was cheered by the friendly services of Red Cross dockside workers offering coffee and doughnuts and a friendly "good-bye."

Later, during his 21-day voyage on the SS Barrett, he described his feeling at this moment in a poem printed in the ship's paper:

On Leaving San Francisco
I stood with mixed emotions at the rail and thought that I would miss my friends and family;
It was hard to say "Good-bye."

But excitement also held me—
"The Adventure," thought I,
"Of setting foot on land again
Beneath a foreign sky."

So I set my face before the wind,
Tried not to think that I would fail to see the Gate again
'Til twelve long months passed by.

Jack Healy, July 1967

Trained in code and cryptography, Jack also acts as a volunteer door-gunner on helicopters and part time public relations man for his company in Vietnam.

He took time out from his multiple duties recently to express his appreciation for Red Cross services in a letter to Mrs. Marion Branston, a volunteer in the Berkeley chapter. He wrote:

"I want to compliment you on the fine work that you do for all servicemen in the Bay Area. The Red Cross has always been good to me, and I know all soldiers everywhere deeply appreciate the selfless attitude and good humor that the Red Cross always provides whenever your morale needs a boost."

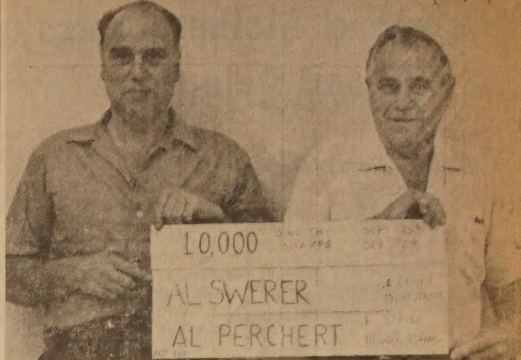

Jack is a graduate of Albany High school and Merritt college in Oakland. He interrupted his studies at San Francisco State College to enlist in the Army in 1966 but plans to complete his course there when he returns from military duty.

LITTLE LEAGUE POPS
NO. 3 LINIMENT CHAMPS

The 1967 Albany Recreation Department Annual Liniment League was denied the climax of a playoff this year by the proficiency of the Little League Pops 3 team. The champions were undefeated in all 10 games. Tom Armstrong's charges won on a combination of rookie-like hustle and veteran knowhow in the field and at the bat as well. Little League Pops 1 and 2 second place, St. Ambrose third place, Jim Woulfe Ford and East Bay Chevrolet tied for 4th.

Albany Woman Honored

Lottie Moody of Albany, member of Berkeley branch, National League of American Pen Women, was one of three recipients of awards given by the American Artists Professional League, Inc., at the recent biennial regional conference of NLAAPW in Sacramento for participation last November in American Art Week.

Mrs. Moody wrote some of the publicity which appeared in newspapers throughout Northern California. Two other individual awards were given to Harriet Munger, Berkeley branch president and Melita Coombs, art chairman. One award was given to Berkeley branch which includes all artists who exhibited work.

The scrapbook which won first award in its class in New York last May was prominently displayed in Sacramento at the conference.

Navajo Night In Berkeley

Members of the public who are interested in the Navajo Indians and their weaving are invited to Navajo Night at the Arts and Crafts Cooperative, 1652 Shattuck Ave., Berkeley, Thursday, Oct. 19, from 7-10 p.m.

This will preview ACCI's new collection of handmade Navajo rugs, which have been sent in from such areas as Wide Ruins, Ganado, Ship Rock, Crystal Springs, and Pine Springs. ## LETTERS

Editor, the Times:

The letter from Mrs. Rutherford in the October 11 issue of the Times seems to deal more in personalities than facts and casts doubt on the integrity of the Superintendent and the Board of Education. Apparently no good purpose can be served by continuing a dialogue with her through the press.

The Board of Education meets in regular public session on the second Tuesday of each month, 7:30 p.m. at 904 Talbot Avenue. Questions, complaints, criticisms, etc., should be directed to the Board at that time or mailed to the above address beforehand.

Sincerely,
KENNETH M. FORRY,
Superintendent, Albany
Unified School District

P.S.—The 1967-68 Budget of the Albany Schools was published in the Times on July 26, 1967.

Editor, the Times:

This is an open letter to all citizens of this community.

My 14-year-old son and I moved into this community from San Francisco on Sept. 9. We left our home and family for one reason. Due to several head injuries to the boy which affected the use of his legs and a stroke on my part, we found the stairs and hills of San Francisco more than we could bear.

I enrolled him in Albany the early part of August because of its small size it fitted his physical needs. When I was unable to find a place within the range of my budget or a landlord who would accept a child, I made arrangements for him to stay with his Scoutmaster, who lives around the corner from the school until I was located.

Being a complete stranger to this side of the Bay, I was here almost a week before I found I was in El Cerrito and not Albany. Due to the physical and emotional stress of moving into a new community of strangers, it was impossible to get to the school to have the records changed. I was not unduly alarmed since there were a number of children from El Cerrito who were attending Albany High school (See Mr.

Forty's Letter to the Editor dated Oct. 4).

Because I did not get to the school, your most wonderful and efficient school board, which you good people of Albany have established, is angry at me and in their blind anger they are ignoring a child's welfare.

This high and almighty school board has been judge and jury and falsely accused me of wrongdoing without hearing my side of the story and has banished my son from Albany High. This most efficient school board is too busy to hear my pleas, ignored a request from the doctor and has a very efficient receptionist to keep out taxpayers who have gone up to plead for the boy.

So, dear fellow citizens of this community, I will have to ask a

Albany Parks and Recreation Summer 1967

Your left foot stupid, your left foot.

It's messy, but it's fun.

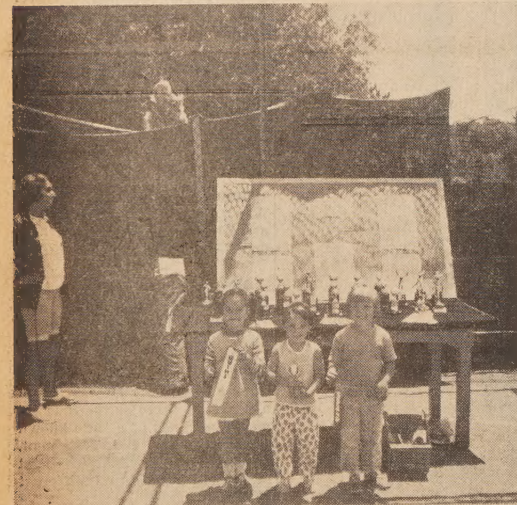

Hobo's Holiday.

It's the wind-up, the pitch — kersplat!

Lights, camera, quiet on the set, roll 'em.

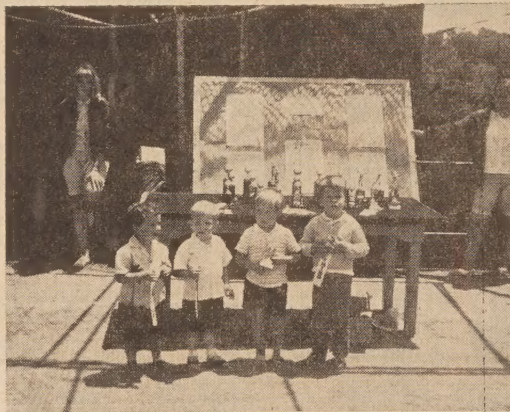

The Junior Miss America Pageant.

A.R.D.: Busy Summer for Albany Kids

A COMBINED attendance of more than 400 children enjoyed the Albany Parks and Recreation Department summer day camp program. The summer's diversion for children between ages six and 12 included field trips to local interest points, baseball games, weekly movies, and a daily schedule with variations in crafts, athletic instruction, bowling, swimming, costume parties, plays and other group activities. A staff of 15 experienced directors managed and oversaw the summer activities, at Memorial and Terrace Parks, and at the Albany Community Center.

We don't use Ban spray deodorant, and we still went to Albany day camp.

Cutest, biggest, smallest—the dogs, not the owners.

This contest was for the birds.

Hurry up and pick the winner. I can't sit still any longer.

100 PARTICIPANTS contributed to the success of the Albany Parks and Recreation Department pet show, held in conjunction with the annual Merchants' Art Bazaar. The Department provided awards for entries — whose owners ranged in age from four to 40 — vying in categories for cats, dogs, reptiles, rodents, birds, and other less conventional pets.

THE ANNUAL Fourth of July festivities saw a throng of 1,500 children and adults partake in watermelon eating contests, horseshoe pitching tournaments and a variety of low-key petitive games. For the spectator, the Albany American Legion game provided entertainment, while the Little League Pops softball battle terminated the evening relaxation, a grand finale to an enjoyable day's celebration.

Grade School Basketball

ONCE AGAIN, the Albany Parks and Recreation Department will sponsor the annual grammar school basketball program. Expanding this year to five leagues, which will be composed of between 400 and 500 youngsters, teams will compete in 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th grade divisions. Each six-team league will complete a double round-robin schedule, amassing a total of 150 supervised games, not including play-offs, before the duration of the season. Two all-star games will be played in each league, one at the conclusion of each round-robin schedule; while further action will include participation in post-season all-star tournaments. Fourth and 5th grade games will be held at the Albany Community Center; all other games are slated for the Albany High School gymnasium.
